

The Fourth District.

An article in the Louisville Journal, of the 23d inst., in reference to the returns from the Fourth Congressional District, indicates in tolerably plain terms that that sheet desires that the State Board of Examiners should give Anderson the certificate of election in defiance of the returns made to the Secretary's office and the expressed will of the voters of the district. The article shows clearly that the Journal is ready to sanction and defend the action of the Board should the certificate be given to Anderson, while the returns are against him. The Journal's argument, founded upon precedents, is as flimsy as its facts are false. The case of Wheat is analogous to the one under discussion. In that case the Board of Examiners at Frankfort did receive and act upon amended returns from the County Examiners. In Nelson the County Examiners reassembled and corrected mistakes in the summing up the vote between Wheat and Bullitt, and amended their returns, which, with amended returns from Hart, altered the result, and the State Board upon these corrections and amendments granted the certificate to Wheat, although the first returns from all the counties of the district gave Bullitt a decided majority. Precedent is therefore clearly on the side of Chrisman.

The Journal asserts that "the Democrats would in no way tolerate any such attempt at correction as has been made in Cumberland county, if the correction would operate against themselves." In answer to this, we have to remind the Journal that no Democrat, so far as we are informed, objected in 1857 to the action of the Board in receiving the corrections, which secured the certificate for Wheat, nor did "Chrisman himself, Garrard, the State Treasurer, &c.," object to the reception of the amended returns from Boyle on the grounds assigned by the Journal. Col. Garrard and the others objected to the corrections in Boyle because they had information that the poll books in that county had been taken out of the clerk's office the Sunday after the election and the mistake of four votes in favor of Anderson discovered in a certain lawyer's paper for the first time, when the Louisville papers published the vote of the district as a tie. They objected only on the score of "alterations and mutilations" of the poll books, and not on account of any change which might fairly be made in the result.

We have been permitted by the Secretary of State to examine all the returns and corrections in returns from the district. The corrections are in Adair, one vote in favor of Anderson, in Boyle four votes in Anderson's favor, and in Cumberland thirteen in favor of Chrisman, which results in a majority of six for the latter in the district. The Adair correction is a certificate from a Mr. Baker, bearing date the 9th inst., and stating that his vote should have been recorded for Anderson, and not for Chrisman. The Boyle correction is an amended return, bearing date the 10th inst., from the County Examiners, declaring the true vote of the county to be 792 for Anderson and 302 for Chrisman. The Cumberland correction is likewise an amended return in due form from the County Examiners, declaring the true vote of the county to be for Anderson 650 and for Chrisman 280. These, together with the first returns from the other counties, constitute the whole of the official and legal information in the possession of the State Board of Examiners at this time. The true official vote of the district is as follows:

	ANDERSON.	CHRISMAN.
Adair.....	547	1096
Boyle.....	792	302
Cumberland.....	151	380
Clinton.....	312	578
Cayce.....	696	448
Green.....	482	681
Lincoln.....	935	440
Pulaski.....	1214	1375
Russell.....	475	472
Taylor.....	357	618
Wayne.....	741	831
	7205	7211
		7205

Chrisman's majority..... 6

Following a precedent set by themselves, and acting in accordance with law and honesty, if no other corrections are officially reported between this and Monday next, the State Board cannot refuse to grant Mr. Chrisman the certificate, and no honest man of the Opposition would like to have them refuse to do so. It has been rumored that the certificate has already been given to Anderson, but without truth. We have been informed by two members of the Board that the certificate has not been issued, and the matter has not been decided. It will be settled on Monday next.

The facts of the case show favorably for Chrisman in every particular. The amended report from Cumberland giving him thirteen more votes, comes from an Opposition county, and from an Opposition Board. If there is fraud in it, Chrisman and his friends are innocent of the crime. The corrections, however, in favor of Anderson come from his own county and from his own political friends, and under the suspicious circumstances alluded to in a preceding part of this article.

There is no evidence before the Board to cause them to doubt for a moment that Chrisman has a majority of the votes of the district. The majority is small, but according to law a majority of one is as good as a thousand. The duty of the Board in the premises is clear, in fact so plain that we feel that it would be discourtesy on our part to express publicly and in advance, even a surmise that they would act to the contrary. So far we have no criticisms to make upon their conduct. They have acted properly in waiting until Monday a order that all the counties may have ample time to send corrections, and if these are fairly acted upon when the certificate is granted, we shall have nothing further to say.

SECRETARY OF STATE.—It is said that Thos. B. Monroe, Jr., the well known and talented editor of the Lexington Statesman, is to be Secretary of State to Governor Magoffin. We believe this to be reliable, and think the party will concur with us in saying that the loss of Democracy in this State could furnish no worthier appointment. We congratulate the Governor elect upon the probability of securing so able a Secretary, and the Democracy of Frankfort upon the chance of obtaining so valuable an acquisition to their social circles. He will prove to be "the right man in the right place."

—We regret to learn that Hon. John P. Martin is at present very ill. We find the following paragraph in the Cincinnati Enquirer, and heartily indorse the merited compliments to Col. Martin's sound Democracy and statesmanship. We trust he may soon be restored to health:

Hon. John P. Martin, of Kentucky, arrived in our city on Thursday evening last, and is stopping at the Broadway Hotel. We regret to learn that he is seriously indisposed, but trust and believe that he is able, ere long, to congratulate him on his permanent restoration to health. Kentucky has within her limits few better statesmen, and no more understanding and zealous Democrats, than John P. Martin.

Vote of Tennessee.
The vote of the counties in Tennessee, except Grainger, Meigs, Tipton, and Wheatley, is:

For Harris.....	72,559
For Netherland.....	65,487
Majority for Harris.....	7,072

The counties not heard from gave Governor Harris, two years ago, a majority of 1,119.

—The barn of George K. Aydelott, at Aydelott's Landing, Meade county, was consumed by fire about 2 o'clock on Saturday last. The building, which was the most extensive one in the county, with all its contents of oats, hay, wheat, and implements, was a total loss, amounting to between $4,000 and $5,000, on which there was but $1,000 insurance.

—The State of South Carolina is now taking a census, and in seventeen parishes there is a decrease of over 5,000 whites since 1855, while the blacks have largely increased. At this rate the Palmetto State will soon be Africanized.

—All the counties in the State have returned to the Secretary's office, except Edmonson. The vote is to be examined and the result declared by the Board on Monday next.

—We return thanks to Hon. Jas. B. Clay for a copy of the Congressional Globe and Appendix of the last session of Congress.

The Fourth District.

MONTICELLO, Aug. 20th, 1859.

MR. EDITOR: The great political battle has been fought, and the Democracy of the Fourth District, under the lead of the gallant Chrisman, have achieved a most decided victory. We have fought a good fight, kept the faith, and the Fourth District may now henceforth and forever be considered Democratic. Taking all things into consideration, I think the Democracy of this district have greater reasons to rejoice and make merry than ever a party had before. We had to contend against Joshua F. Bell, W. C. Anderson, and last, but not least, the Danville Bank. It was a life and death struggle with Anderson and his party, and they used every effort in their power to defeat Major Chrisman. He was slandered, vilified, and lied upon unmercifully, and money was circulated more freely than the ever was before; but, notwithstanding this, the Major with his towering intellect, untiring energy, and personal popularity, together with the earnest and efficient efforts of the indomitable Democracy, outtrode the storm and came out conqueror, and more than conqueror, over the heads of all opposition. He went before the people of his district relying on the popularity of no man nor the corruption land of any one, but on the just and universal popularity of Democratic principles. He placed confidence in the incorruptible integrity of the sovereigns of the land, and they sustained him.

It is true the conflict was close and bloody, and every inch of ground was contested; but truth and justice will prevail, and the Democracy passed safely over Jordan, and we are now reclining under our own vine and fig tree, and "neath its luscious clusters and fragrant bloom are laughing and growing fat in the land of political Canaan. Have we not reason to rejoice with exceeding great joy?

If you hear of any steamer bound for Salt River shortly you will please notify us of the fact immediately, as we have a lot of Oppositionists we want to ship at our earliest convenience. They are becoming a great nuisance to society; they are dying daily and filling the air with their stench; and the few that have survived, thus far, we fear are so badly spoiled that salt won't save them.

It was generally believed for several days that Anderson was really elected, and we never saw or heard tell of a set of fellows cutting up such shames as the Opposition did at this place. When they first received the intelligence they sent runners to the leaders of their party throughout the county, notifying them that their presence was demanded in town immediately. They accordingly came, and all ages, sizes, and colors got on a grand big barbecue, which they kept up for two days and nights without intermission. They also had a big barbecue and ball in contemplation, but we have not heard of their making any preparations during the last week. We fear they have declined the idea.

They are now contenting themselves with cursing what they are pleased to term Chrisman's good luck. They say "he is the luckiest dog on earth, and there is no use of trying to beat him." We heard one remark, the other day, "that, taking his size into consideration, he had made the best race of any man in Kentucky, having to carry Josh Bell, Bill Anderson, the Danville Bank, the piles, and Jim Buchanan on his back."

But we will conclude by giving three cheers for Chrisman and the Democracy of the Fourth District. More anon. OCCASIONAL.

PROGRAMME OF THE
CEREMONIES OF INAUGURATION,
ON THE 30th AUGUST, 1859.

The recent election has resulted in the choice of BERNARD MAGOFFIN as the Governor of our State for the four years succeeding the 30th of the present month. The inauguration will consequently take place on that day at this Capital of the State.

It is the universal custom of the citizens of Frankfort, with that warm and generous hospitality for which they are so well known, and which they know so well how to use, and of the people of the State, without distinction of party, to celebrate with appropriate ceremonies an event of such great importance to all the citizens of this Commonwealth.

On this occasion we sincerely hope that the voice of party spirit may not be heard, and that, as citizens having a common interest in the prosperity and happiness of the State, we will cordially unite in showing that respect to the distinguished individual chosen by the people to preside over them, their Governor, and to his future neighbors and friends, as will give him a hearty welcome to the Capital of our State, with whose destiny he will have so much to do for the next four years.

We, therefore, as a committee selected without reference to party, respectfully invite our fellow-citizens, generally, to unite in the inaugural ceremonies.

At half-after 7 o'clock, the Committee of Reception, composed of the gentlemen who were appointed at the public meeting on the 15th inst., as follows: A. J. James, A. G. Hodges, J. P. O'Hara, L. A. Thomas, D. S. Crockett, J. P. Switzer, T. D. Carmel, A. W. Dudley, Isaac Wingo, Thos. Steele, Jno. A. Holton, Orlando Brown, Anthony Crockett, Alex. Julian, S. I. M. Major, Henry C. Holmes, E. L. Taylor, H. Bellinger, M. R. Chinn, C. G. Graham, R. R. Bowling, and J. B. Gentry—will assemble at the Mansion House, and proceed in carriages, buggies, or on horseback, to the county line on the Frankfort and Lawrenceburg Turnpike, where they will receive, welcome, and escort the Governor elect to the city limits in South Frankfort, where a procession will be formed under the Superintendence of the Chief Marshal and his assistants.

Order of Procession.

The procession will be formed immediately upon the arrival of the Governor elect at the city limits of South Frankfort, in the following order:

Chief Marshal, John B. Major and Dan. W. Lindsey, Ass't Marshals, Music.
Military Companies, Geo. R. Vallandigham and James M. Crockett, Ass't Marshals.
The Committee of Arrangements, The GOVERNOR ELECT, in an open barouche.
The Committee of Reception, Lewis D. Craig and R. F. Dwyer, Ass't Marshals.
Judges of the Courts, Civil Officers.
Ministers of the Gospel, City Council and Officers, Geo. B. Burdick and Gran. Williams, Ass't Marshals, Visiting Strangers.
Sam. Gray and James K. Ashmore, Ass't Marshals.
The procession, after passing across the bridge, will move down Wapping street to Wilkinson street, down Wilkinson street to Main street, up Main street to High street, down High street to Clinton street, down Clinton to Ann street, down Ann to Broadway, down Broadway until it reaches the Capitol Square, where the Committee of Arrangements will conduct the Governor elect to the portico of the Capitol, where the Governor will introduce him to his fellow-citizens.

Address of the Governor elect, Oath of Office, Music.

From thence the Governor will be conducted by the acting Governor and the Committee of Arrangements to the Executive Buildings of the State Department.

Immediately after the oath of office has been administered, a national salute will be fired by the Artillery Company, under the charge of Capt. Sam. Gouin.

The following gentlemen have been designated at the public meeting on the 15th inst., to accompany the Governor elect on his departure in the afternoon train from the State Capital to Louisville, as an escort, on Wednesday, the 31st of August, viz: J. P. Metcalfe, T. N. Lindsey, Peter Jett, Ben. Monroe, J. W. Tate, R. W. Blackburn, R. R. Revill, W. H. Gray, G. H. Jett, Thos. M. Green, D. M. Bowen, Jno. M. Todd, B. F. Johnson, B. B. Sayre, John Rodman, A. G. Hodges, R. B. Taylor, John B. Tildor, A. Murray, Hugh Rodman, Edw. H. Howell, E. H. Watson, Livewell Holton, R. R. Bowling, Sam. South, Bob. Holton, A. Conroy, Isaac Wingo, Jr. J. W. Pruett, H. I. Todd, H. I. Morris, Lewis Carmel, Geo. B. Humley, John M. Brown, T. B. Gray, Lewis Craig, John Bowen, J. W. Batchelor, J. W. Lewis, J. P. O'Hara.

J. W. SOUTH, J. W. PRUETT, J. W. VALLANDIGHAM, JAMES M. TODD, HUGH RODMAN, G. W. OWEN, W. S. DODDNEY, W. H. KEENE, A. KAHN, JNO. O'CONNELL, Committee of Arrangements.

John Young Brown's Eligibility.

Our gallant young Congressman elect has won for himself in the popular canvass a reputation that is already wide-spread. Many of the principal journals in the East notice the fact of his extreme youth for so distinguished a position, and discuss the question of his eligibility. Among them is the Albany Evening Journal, which opines as follows:

"One of the Democratic members of Congress just elected in Kentucky (Brown) will not be of the constitutional age to take seat until the second session of the ensuing Congress. It may be that he will try to do so, although the prohibition is very explicit."

The Louisville Journal very generously takes up the cudgels for Brown in the following article: "We think our Albany contemporary does us injustice to Mr. Brown, for it is understood that he will not take his seat until the second session of the Congress to which he was elected, when he will have arrived at the constitutional age. Mr. Brown told the nominating convention that he labored under the disability, and made no concealment of the fact during the canvass, but none of the old stagers of the party were willing to run against Jewett, whose popularity and tact as an electioneer they seem to have over-estimated, and so the honor was forced upon Brown. It will be remembered that Jewett defied the Congressmen of Opposition about the Democracy of place to place, kept him on the defensive continually, and exposed his political and official tergiversations in such a damaging manner, that Jewett was whipped before the polls were opened. We are quite certain, from what we know of John Young Brown, that he will not present his credentials at the bar of the House of Representatives while there is a constitutional objection to his taking seat. There is no constitutional objection to a constituency electing any inhabitant of their state as a Representative, irrespective of his age, but he cannot assume his official position until he has attained to the age of twenty-five years; and should the first session of the ensuing Congress be a protracted one, Mr. Brown may be able to offer his credentials next summer."

We desire to call especial attention to the last paragraph of this extract from the Journal. It confirms the position we have always maintained, that the election of John Young Brown was perfectly valid and constitutional. We expect after this to hear no more yelping from the lesser Congressmen of Opposition about the Democracy of the Fifth District violating the Constitution. Bardotown Democrat.

A WOMAN COWARDING A MAN.—Mrs. Frances Temple is pretty, energetic, and in fine line. She resides in Boston when at home, and has seen some 20 summers, not one of which has left a wrinkle upon her face. Mr. Russell R. Rogers makes his head by kneeling 4 1/2 hours in our neighboring city of Roxbury. In other words, he is a baker, has married a second wife, and has a large family of children. One of Rogers' sons married a sister of Mrs. Temple, so that the reader will perceive that the quarrel is all in the family. Mr. Rogers is not a discreet man, apparently.

Yesterday afternoon she procured a new cowhide, an extra quantity of cranberry, and a seat in a Norfolk horse car. She went to Roxbury. She arrived safely, and walked up and down Dudley street several times, until she espied her intended victim. He had just left his residence, No. 11 Lambert street, and probably was thinking of loops, when he was startled by a fire in his rear. He turned, and before him stood Frances Temple with a cowhide in her hand. It did not remain idle. Blow after blow fell upon his face, neck, and other parts of his person.

He made one attempt to grasp the instrument of punishment, but his remarks were short and emphatic, as she eluded his hands. Her words were, "No you don't!" and he didn't. He turned and fled for the police station, under the City Hall. She gave chase, and by carrying more sail, she kept up with him, still making the cowhide do fearful execution. He belated into the police office, and she followed him. He went round a long tail at a 2:40 gait, but she was close on his heel all the time.

Books and papers were swept to the floor, but still the race was continued, and the cowhide never stopped rising and falling, like the grana jewel of a Son of Malta in good condition. At length, through a Marshal Hubbard entered the room and laid his hand gently upon Frances Temple's shoulder. For a moment he restrained her. Only for a moment, however. She broke away from him, and with a strong left hand, she planted it full upon Mr. Rogers' nose. The claret flew in all directions.

American State Council.

GENEVA, N. Y., Aug. 23.—Quite a number of prominent American politicians have congregated here to attend the American State Council, which will meet to-day. The struggle will be on the time of holding a State Convention.

Daniel Ullman, who is said to represent the policy of Thurlow Weed, will oppose a call of the Convention. On the same day the Republicans will hold their's in order that the latter may not be embarrassed by any union openly with the Americans. The Buffalo delegation, who favor a union, and act with the anti-Weed Republicans, advocate the holding of a Convention on the 7th of September, at Syracuse, so as to free the Republican Convention, either to recognize the Americans, or drive them into an open rupture. The chances, thus far, seem to be in favor of the calling of the Convention to meet on the 21st of September.

Quick Work.—On Sunday night last, five negroes belonging to Geo. Atkinson, of Henderson, ran away from his farm, near that place. The Monday morning early he had bills printed, offering $50 for each if caught in the county, $100 in the State, out of the county, or $200 out of the State. Mr. S. V. Vigos, of Henderson, armed himself and went alone in pursuit, and caught them all, and sent them beyond Booneville, in Indiana. Three offered no resistance, and Mr. Vigos lodged them in the jail at Booneville. Mr. Atkinson immediately handed over to him the sum of $1,000. Pretty good haul these hard times. Rheumatism Cured.

To the readers of the Yeoman: Preserve this notice. If not afflicted yourself, you may serve suffering humanity by sending it to some one who is. Dr. Mortimore, by personal treatment, and the use of his remedy, by Physicians and Druggists, has cured probably twenty thousand cases of this painful and paralyzing disease—comprising cases of every seeming form, from those of a recent inflammatory (acute) character, to old chronic cases of ten, twenty, and even thirty years' standing.

This disease is becoming more prevalent every year, and is seldom cured, or even alleviated, by the usual course of treatment. In its active form it often proves fatal, or it not soon arrested, becomes chronic—stiffens the joints, contracts the ligaments, muscles, and tendons, and thus renders the sufferer a cripple for life, or, if ever afterwards cured, even by the use of this remedy, requires longer treatment and greater expense.

This is a vegetable internal remedy which cures the proprietor of it after long suffering, and all the usual remedies known had failed, and is safe to be used in any state of health—even by the most delicate female or child, and its success, in curing rheumatism, is attested by thousands, among whom are eminent physicians, ministers of various denominations, prominent journalists, and individuals of high standing throughout our country, such as should inspire confidence in every rational mind.

This evidence can be had on call at the office; or those at a distance, by addressing the proprietor, will receive, by mail, a circular of evidence. The remedy can be had at $5 per bottle, or five bottles for $20. Persons ordering at a distance can remit at the proprietor's risk by registering letter, and the medicine will be forwarded by express, or as directed, to any place in the United States or Europe.

Apply to or address DR. D. MORTIMORE, Third street, opposite John office, Louisville, Ky.

Dr. M. can refer to more than one thousand physicians and druggists in the United States in behalf of the efficacy of this remedy. sep1 w&t-wt
